

Chapter Queen

From: Babshart1@aol.com

Today is your day -- your time has come to wear the chapter crown.
To be our chapter queen.
Having lost the most weight to goal in (Insert Year).
You've made a valiant fight.
A winner you are.
So take care to value
what you've won.
This precious gift you've earned is the reward for what you've done
Don't take this day to lightly.
You've just begun your fight.
Every day you must work to keep it
Every day is a new delight.
This treasure can easily slip away
unless you guard it well.
Just ask someone who has lost it,
their story is sad to tell.
You climbed the heights;
you've made the top of that Mountain
we all must climb.
Each one of us here is proud of you.
We will reach our KOPS in time.
