

THE DESIGNATED DIETER

-----I often think that there should be-----
For lovers of food, like you and me -----
A designated dieter.-----
When you tire of lettuce and carrots and stuff,-----
And of exercise you've had enough,-----
Just call on-----
YOUR DESIGNATED DIETER! -----
She would come and pinch-hit for you,-----
While on you favorite foods you could chew,----
And she would diet just for you- -----
YOUR DESIGNATED DIETER!-----
You'd never have to face the scale,-----
Or weigh in day you'd never fail,-----
For standing there , as slim as a rail would be-----
YOUR DESIGNATED DIETER.-----
And then, on that day at the end of the year-----
When recognition time is here,-----
There'd be a hug and a great big cheer,-----
FOR YOUR DESIGNATED DIETER!-----
You'll be standing here with you face all red-----
And the one with the glittering crown on her head ----- will be
