

NEVER QUIT PLEDGE

Today I promise I will not quit.

I pledge that no matter how many ups and downs I pass through, I will continue on my journey.

I pledge to make a NEW START today,
and forgive myself for my past,
And to stop being so critical of myself.

I pledge to take control of myself, To stop making excuses, And stop blaming other people or situations.

I pledge to treat myself as I would my Best Friend,
Because that is who I am.

I pledge to stay in the race And to be a WINNER!
